
Curriculum Vitae

M-Beat Pete

During school time started my interest on PA systems and listening to the Music.

After school I noticed dancing is not my subject so focused on listening to music.

After couple of years working I ended up in 3GPP standardization.

In parallel to my work I was also active in organizing small events for which I was always able to hire somebody who takes care of playing music and managed to take care of the PA system.