93 – Samsung Research America

You made possible to complete Rel-15 NR on time. You introduced several novel procedures, including having feature leads - efficient progress on an always heavily loaded RAN1 schedule would not be possible without them. You realized that colleagues who are typically jet-lagged and working super-hard should not be crammed in rooms for unending hours, just to show that "hard work" is done in RAN1, and closed the meeting each day at a sane time. Your legacy in RAN1 is well established - for effectiveness, efficiency, and caring for your colleagues - best wishes for a fun and productive journey at RANP. - Aris P.

94 – QUALCOMM JAPAN LLC.

A leader takes people where they want to go. An extraordinary leader takes people where they don't necessarily want to go, but ought to be.

Thank you Wanshi for your vision, your extraordinary ability and leadership to guide us in RAN1 during the last four years. Please don't forget us in RAN1 on your new journey and may success be with you always :-)

Thanks you Wanshi for the wonderful leadership in the last four years during which we have successful launch of 5G and moving forward to 5G+ beyond even under COVID-19. It's my pelasure and honor working in RAN1 and being your colleague. Wish you all the best in leading 3GPP ecosystem. - Chenxi

148 – Qualcomm Incorporated

Its been a great privilege to participate in sessions chaired by you. The words "can you live with it" will ring in my mind for a long time to come :-). Thanks for your excellent leadership in the past and especially during these rather tough times. Looking forward to your new tenure as the RAN chair. -Gokul

149 – Apple France

Something that I like to mention here aiming to make a smile on your face is about number of configured UL grant configurations per BWP in Rel-16. Which one 8 or 16? Neither, 12 thanks to you who ended a long discussion :) Seriously, I am extremely thankful for your excellent leadership. Thank you and BR-Ali

150 – Asia Pacific Telecom co. Ltd

Thanks Wanshi for making RAN1 meeting style a bit different from the past, but more efficient and has been adopted by other WGs more or less. Also, thanks for the leadership especially in the difficult time of e-meeting era. Wish you all the best. - Chia-Hao

151 – Qualcomm Incorporated

Thank you Mr. Chairman for 4 exciting years. Your leadership and dedication enabled RAN1 to achieve all its goals in ordinary and extraordinary times and is a reason the NR logo appears on my phone today. I look forward to NR V2X appearing in my car, thanks to you guiding us towards convergence even when none seemed possible. – Gabi

152 – QUALCOMM Europe Inc. - Italy

You have tirelessly given your time and resources to lead RAN1 for the past 4 years. I admire your energy, passion and dedication for work and life. Keep running, keep leading! – Le

180 – Ericsson LM

Thank you Wanshi for the time in RAN1!

I am glad that I got to know you, a competent, skilled, dedicated and committed person that achieves the goals while considering the well-being of the group in charge.

And the socializing being the best part of RAN1, I found you to be the best in that too, a very nice, caring AND fun person with great humor who made the RAN1 social gatherings very memorable and enjoyable.

On-the-chair, you made quite an impression from the first time I attended your session when you chaired eLAA ☐

Off-the-chair, when I heard you first time singing, it was mind-blowing!!! You've got an amazing voice!! I regret that I haven't been more persistent to get you sing during/in-between the sessions ☐

Keep on the good work and good luck with the new challenges ahead! I am sure you will do an amazing job leading the RANP too!

I will miss you in RAN1!

Big hugs

Sorour

RAN1 owes you a lot for all of your contributions as a delegate, a vice-chair and a chair. I am sure you will continue the excellent streak in your capacity as RAN plenary chair. It has been a true pleasure to serve RAN1 alongside you the past few years. Your ability to be both a friend and a leader to the group and your ability to consistently find the balance between listening and guiding, and flexibility and firmness is an inspiration. And in spite of the toughest of circumstances due to the pandemic, you have succeeded in fostering and maintaining the cohesiveness of RAN1. You will be sorely missed. Wish you the very best always.

Thanks for being chairman for the past four years.

With your leadership in the past few years as RAN1 chairman and RAN1 vice chair, RAN1 has successfully achieved the delivery of 5G, which are viewed by quite many as the driving force for the next round of technology/industry innovation.

Personally, you are the guide for me to run more than 20km. Although tired when running together with you, they are the most unforgettable experiences in my 3GPP life. Hope there will be more opportunities to run together with you.

Wish you the best in the coming years.

Wish you run faster and faster!!!
