Miami

Hotel Inter-Continental Miami captures all the city's excitement, energy and cultural diversity. It is located 5 miles, 15 minutes from the Miami International Airport. Overlooking sparkling Biscayne Bay, the city and the port, provides a secure environment directly in the heart of the financial district. The hotel is adjacent to the 200 fashionable shops and restaurants of Bayside Marketplace, and just a short drive to South Beach, Coconut Grove, nearby beaches and area attractions.

Travel Documents

Foreign visitors entering the United States must be in possession of a valid passport. Participants from countries requiring a visa should apply to the US consular offices or diplomatic missions in their home countries.

Transportation to and around Miami

Miami is convenient to get to and convenient to get around in. Located within easy driving distance, the Inter-Continental has 4 restaurants on site and is adjacent to Bayside Marketplace with shops and restaurants within walking distance.

Weather in Miami

The climate in Miami is humid and warm in the summer. The average temperature in June is around 76-88°. With average rain – 16 days of the month.

Attire

Dress is casual in Miami. Although, some restaurants prefer a jacket for men, most restaurants generally are accustomed to serving both formally and casually attired customers. Don't forget a light wrap; air conditioning is everywhere. In general, wear what you feel most comfortable in.

Dining

Miami offers a variety of cuisine.

Tipping

Tipping is customary for many travel and dining services in the US. Here are some guidelines:

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| Taxi | Typically, a 10% tip is provided to taxi drivers. |
| Restaurants | Typically, a 15% tip is left for restaurant wait staff. |
| Porters | Typically, one or several dollars is provided for bellboys, doormen, etc., depending upon the service requested. ($1/bag) |
